WA CLOCK HRS: 50

NO. OF CREDITS: 5 QUARTER CREDITS
[semester equivalent = 3.33 credits]

OREGON PDUs: 50

PENNSYLVANIA ACT 48: 50

INSTRUCTOR: Debora Supplitt
supplitt@comcast.net

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course offers in-depth tour of "Rock and Roll" history. It is filled with information and tools for teachers of grades 6-12, or for any teacher who wishes to incorporate "Rock and Roll" into classroom curriculum. Celebrate Rock and Roll's 60th Anniversary by riding this "Magic Bus" through the world of Rock and Roll. You will listen to, view and study the vocal artist and bands that shaped the History of Rock and Roll. Starting with the early Delta Blues, Country Music and Gospel you will study how these early roots played a significant role in developing today's rock sounds.

Follow the evolution from these early pioneers of rock as this course "blasts into the past" from the 50's, the early 60's with the British Invasion, the Height Ashbury/San Francisco sound, the Vietnam era and songs of protest, the Popin' 80's Disco vs. Punk, Metal bands, the roots of Rap, Hip/Hop, and the cross over into today's genres bending music.

With your special "backstage pass" for online supplemental materials, you will have total access to a complete "You Tube" list of rock bands and artists and like you've never seen before. Plus, if you choose to purchase the DVD's "The History of Rock" Discs 1-5, Warner Brothers' Home DVD Set. Each of the 5 DVD's discs contains two one-hour episodes. There is an option to view these videos for free via YouTube.

This magical mystery tour is waiting to take you away. Roadies, sidemen, and groupies are encouraged to hop aboard and boogie on down. Guaranteed to blow your mind.

Your "tour guide" textbook is Rockin' Out! Popular Music in the U.S.A. by Reebee Garofalo, fourth Edition, or later, is available new and used at Amazon.com starting at $7 plus shipping. It is also available at local libraries, and from Powell's Books online.

Of course no trip is complete without the necessary travel equipment: Access to a computer, free access (unrestricted) to the internet, free access to "You Tube".

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completion of this course, participants will have:

1. A general outline of The History of Rock and Roll.
2. A knowledge of how Rock and Roll of each era reflects American culture and was driven by and reflected the social movements of the eras.
3. A greater understanding of how Rock and Roll developed as a result of culture change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Completion of all specified assignments is required for issuance of hours or credit. The Heritage Institute does not award partial credit.

The use of artificial intelligence is not permitted. Assignment responses found to be generated by AI will not be accepted.

HOURS EARNED:

Completing the basic assignments (Section A. Information Acquisition) for this course automatically earns participants their choice of CEUs (Continuing Education Units), Washington State Clock Hours, Oregon PDUs, or Pennsylvania ACT 48 Hours. The Heritage Institute offers CEUs and is an approved provider of Washington State Clock Hours, Oregon PDUs, and Pennsylvania ACT 48 Hours.
