Assignment #8: El Puente Academy for Peace & Justice

Take a look at the EL Puente Academy for Peace & Justice's website (<https://elpuente.us/el-puente-academy-for-peace-justice/>), specifically the information about the History and the Twelve Fundamental Principles.

Thinking about all that you have read and learned so far in this class, as well as your goals for taking this course, develop a brochure, flyer, poster, infographic, or something along these lines that would be the Twelve Fundamental Principles you would like to establish for your classroom. Similar to the presentation of El Puente's, each month should have a topic and brief (one sentence) description. (Even though your school may not be open in the summer months, there should be twelve principles.)

Assignment #10: Journaling

Take into consideration your new knowledge from your work in Section A, Learning Acquisition.

Over a 2 – 3 week period, take time to find your own inner peace - whether that means that you integrate some of the strategies from Assignment #2, incorporate some breathing techniques, or incorporate some other calming technique that works for you. Keep a journal of what you chose to do and how you felt during and after, whether you found more inner peace, and your overall feelings. (Keep in mind that you may try a technique and find it not helpful, so feel free to switch it up and try a variety of techniques – this is your time to explore.) Some questions to consider: Did you notice that even when not practicing your technique – did you feel more “at peace” or not? Did interactions with others change – or not? Did you perceive others interacting with you differently – or not?

The journal can be in whatever form you'd like – paragraph form, bullet points, video – it's your journal, so you choose the format. It's OK to have a digital journal, on google docs, for instance, and post your response.

Assignment #11: Lesson Plan for Classroom Peace

Create a lesson plan for students or parents (or, if not applicable, for children/teens/adults – your choice – in your life) on any topic(s) related to finding inner peace that will best meet your needs. You may use the Heritage Institute Lesson Template or any template of your choosing.

1. Implement your lesson with students/parents/adults.
2. Submit the lesson plan.
3. Write a 450-500 word commentary/reflection, including (where applicable):
  - What worked well?
  - What could have been improved?
  - What, if any, additional topics and issues were raised?

If it is not possible to teach your lesson, then in place of the above, complete both of the following:

Option A:

Plan and facilitate a workshop or seminar for a colleague(s) on integrating inner peace in the classroom. This could be written as a presentation, informational written material, graphic - it is your choice of how you share the information.

AND

Option B:

Mentor a colleague(s) to help her//him/them devise a lesson about inner peace for their classroom. In a 500+ word paper, include a summary of your meetings/conversations, what was discussed, concerns shared, issues, etc.
