WA CLOCK HRS: 30
OREGON PDUs: 30
PENNSYLVANIA ACT 48: 30

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

As a teacher do you ever feel overwhelmed? Burned-out? Do you feel as if you can't get through to some students? That you lack administrative support? That you cannot connect with some parents? That you can't get away from negativity when you go to the lunchroom or pass certain teachers in the hallway? That you lack important resources for yourself or your students? Perhaps you just can't break out of your own rut.

When Teaching Gets Tough offers practical strategies teachers can use to make things better right away. The text offers specific and distinct examples and strategies for addressing a plethora of difficult situations, as well providing as reflective opportunities and specific sections designed for administrators. The supplemental readings offer even more ideas and opportunities for exploring solutions. Once the course is completed, teachers will feel back on top of their game, re-energized, and know that they are making a positive difference in their lives and the lives of their students.

This course is appropriate for all grades, K - 12 including teachers, para-educators, counselors, and other support personnel.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completion of this course, participants will have:

- Manage difficult students
- Work with unappreciative and irritating adults
- Make the best of an imperfect environment
- Find time to take care of themselves.
- Reclaim and sustain their energy and enthusiasm for teaching.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Completion of all specified assignments is required for issuance of hours or credit. The Heritage Institute does not award partial credit.

ASSIGNMENTS REQUIRED FOR HOURS OR UNIVERSITY QUARTER CREDIT

A. INFORMATION ACQUISITION

Assignments done in a course forum will show responses from all educators who have or are taking the course independently. Feel free to read and respond to others' comments.

Group participants can only view and respond to their group members in the Forum.

Assignment #1: COURSE FORUM - Introduce Yourself

Read the Introduction and Chapter 1: The Big Picture: Attitudes and Strategies in When Teaching Gets Tough. Then in 1-2 paragraphs, introduce yourself, share what you hope to gain from this course, and on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = not a problem, 5 = source of great stress), rank each of the following issues on how it affects you:

- Disruptive/Unmotivated Students
- Lack of appreciation from colleagues, administrators and parents
- Inadequate resources
- Lack of attention to yourself

Feel free to respond to any other postings from educators who are also taking this course.

Assignment #2: Strategies for Working with Difficult Students

Read Chapter 2: Strategies for Working with Difficult Students in When Teaching Gets Tough as well as the following three websites:

<https://www.amle.org/BrowsebyTopic/WhatsNew/WNDet/TabId/270/ArtMID/888/ArticleID/532/Compassionate-Discipline-Dealing-with-Difficult-Students.aspx>

<https://study.com/blog/dealing-with-difficult-students-classroom-management-tips.html>

<https://www.edutopia.org/article/strategies-managing-challenging-student-behaviors/>

In 250-500 words, what parts of these readings resonated with you? What strategies do you think might work for you and your students? Are there any that you think you will find difficult or cumbersome to implement? Why? In addition, consider the following questions in your reply:

- What are your thoughts on the six pillars for success?
- How do you see yourself in regard to the three roles for teachers?
- From the website Edutopia article Strategies for Managing Challenging Student Behaviors, which strategies/tips do you think would most help you, the teacher?
- From the website Compassionate Discipline: Dealing with Difficult Students, what key points appeal to you the most?

Assignment #3: Working Successfully with Unappreciative or Irritating Adults

Read Chapter 3: Working Successfully with Unappreciative or Irritating Adults in When Teaching Gets Tough.

Complete the Review Questions.

In 250-500 words, identify what portions of this chapter are most applicable to you and how you could incorporate some of the strategies into your day. Consider the following questions in your response:

- Which strategies for getting the appreciation you need and deserve do you think are most applicable to you?
- What tips from getting support from your administration section would work best for your conversational style and personality?
- Which of the strategies presented in the Difficult Colleagues sections could work for you?
- Which one or two of the baker's dozen from the parent support section could be successful for you?

Assignment #4: COURSE FORUM - Making the Best of an Imperfect Environment

Read Chapter 4: Making the Best of an Imperfect Environment in When Teaching Gets Tough as well as the following websites:

<https://www.weareteachers.com/free-teacher-resources/>

http://www.educationworld.com/a_curr/profdev/profdev102.shtml

<http://www.freetech4teachers.com/2010/09/10-ways-to-get-free-money-classroom.html>

- Brainstorm your wish list of things and personnel you would like to have to help you do your job more effectively. Next, consider people in your school, community, and local organizations that could possibly obtain supplies and/or volunteer hours.
- If there are postings in this space, read the comments from others, respond to any posts, and share other websites you have found that are useful for teachers to obtain free or inexpensive resources.
- Then in 250-500 words, write a summary analysis of the readings, your wish list and possible resources, and share ideas of how you can make the best of an imperfect environment.

Assignment #5: COURSE FORUM - Taking Top-Notch Care of Yourself

- Complete the Review Questions.
- In 1-2 paragraphs, share how you take care of yourself physically and emotionally. Feel free to share any websites, tools or ideas and also feel free to respond to any other postings from educators who are also taking this course. If there are other posts in this assignment space, read and respond to at least one.
- Then in 250-500 words, write a culminating analysis of the reading, sharing your top 3- 5 take-aways from the book and/or websites, share what you learned and how you will use your new knowledge.

ADDITIONAL ASSIGNMENTS REQUIRED FOR UNIVERSITY QUARTER CREDIT

B. LEARNING APPLICATION

In this section, you will apply your learning to your professional situation. This course assumes that most participants are classroom teachers who have access to students. If you do not have a classroom available to you, please contact the instructor for course modifications. Assignments done in a course forum will show responses from all educators who have or are taking the course independently. ?Feel free to read and respond to others' comments. Group participants can only view and respond to their group members in the Forum.

Assignment #6: Experience & Understanding

Think of one not-so-positive experience you have had involving each of the following situations:

- Disruptive/Unmotivated Students
- Lack of appreciation from colleagues, administrators and parents
- Inadequate resources
- Lack of attention to yourself

Describe each experience. After reflecting and considering what you have learned in this course, if this same scenario occurred again, how would you respond/react differently? How would your new response change the outcome? Write 500 words (or more).

Assignment #7: Implementation

Implement some of the strategies you learned in this course. You may want to focus on one area, perhaps the one where you face your biggest challenges. After a 2 to 3 week period, evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies. Share the details of your implementation, thoughts about what went well, and what was challenging. Write 500 words (or more).

Note – If you currently are not in your own classroom, you are welcome to implement within your own family, friend's children, other children/students with whom you may come in contact. Please contact me if you need more ideas for modifications.

Assignment #8: Mentoring

Mentor another teacher in the methods and information from this class and observe her/him in the classroom. Again, you may want to focus the mentoring on the one area where that teacher faces the most challenges. Write 500 words (or more) summarizing your observation, results, and reflection.

Note – If you currently are not in your own classroom, you are welcome to mentor a co-parent (if applicable), a friend, family member, etc... Again, please contact me if you need more ideas for modifications.

Assignment #9: (500 LEVEL ASSIGNMENT)

In addition to the 400 level assignments, complete one of the following:

Option A)

Prepare a PowerPoint for staff and colleagues about ways teachers can reclaim their game in which you share the key concepts, strategies and potential outcomes from the course readings.

OR

Option B)

Conduct additional research via periodicals, online articles or videos (a minimum of two) in one or more of the following areas - disruptive/unmotivated students - lack of appreciation from colleagues, administrators and parents - inadequate resources - lack of attention to yourself. Document the key points you learned in either a mind map or 2-page paper. Include an analysis of how this research supports or contrasts with the course text and readings.

OR

Option C)

Read one of the books listed in the bibliography of this syllabus or the textbook. Write a 2 - 3 page reflection comparing the premise of your chosen book to that of When Teaching Gets Tough: Smart Ways to Reclaim Your Game

C. INTEGRATION PAPER

Assignment #10: (Required for 400 and 500 Level)

SELF REFLECTION & INTEGRATION PAPER

(Please do not write this paper until you've completed all of your other assignments)

Write a 400-500 word Integration Paper answering these 5 questions:

1. What did you learn vs. what you expected to learn from this course?
2. What aspects of the course were most helpful and why?
3. What further knowledge and skills in this general area do you feel you need?
4. How, when and where will you use what you have learned?
5. How and with what other school or community members might you share what you learned?

INSTRUCTOR COMMENTS ON YOUR WORK:

Instructors will comment on each assignment. If you do not hear from the instructor within a few days of posting your assignment, please get in touch with them immediately.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR TEACHING THIS COURSE:

Suzanne Warner, M.S., received her Masters Degree in Education from the University of Rochester, New York. She has taught mathematics in the middle school, high school, and college settings, most recently in Oregon. Suzanne has been lauded by administrators, colleagues, students and parents regarding her teaching and classroom management skills. Her students enjoy learning in a respectful, productive environment, where each student is in control of her/his own learning and behaviors. She strongly believes that all students want to do well, and creates a teaching environment for them to succeed.

When not in the classroom, Suzanne enjoys spending time with her family reading, hiking, backpacking and traveling.
